Short biography

Avvocato (attorney-at-law) Alix Manconi has been working with the law firm Studio legale e notarile Niccolò Salvioni since 2019. Previously she worked for a law firm in Ticino, with headquarters in Lausanne.

In her professional practice, avv. Alix Manconi has had experience with several cases of foreign law with contacts with various sectors of the administration.

Another area of her experience is the criminal law, both within the cantonal and federal courts.

The vocation of the law firm in Locarno, also to deal with matters with extra-cantonal and foreign jurisdictional relations, has led avv. Alix Manconi to join the team and to work professionally in addition to Italian, in French and English, with basic knowledge of German.

The extra-professional and professional travel experiences allowed avv. Alix Manconi to entertain contacts, exchanges and collaborations with high quality professionals, not only in the Ticino area, in Italy and in Canada but also in legal, political, economic and cultural realities, very different from the European ones.

Areas of Practice:

Private Law Inheritance Law, Probate and Wills; Contract Law; Matrimonial and Concubinage Law; Filiation Law; Law of Persons; Association and Foundation Law; Child and Adult Protection Law.

Administrative Law

General Administrative Law of the Confederation and of the Canton of Ticino; Immigration Law; Foreign Law; Asylum Law; Constitutional Law; European Convention on Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (ECHR); Building and Urban Planning Law; Environmental Law.

Criminal Law
