ADMISSIONS AND AFFILIATIONS

ATME - Associazione Ticinese dei Mediatori (translation: "Association of the Mediators of the Canton of Ticino")

Prior to that, she had gained several years of professional experience, both in the federal administration and in the cantonal administration in Ticino, as well as in foreign and Swiss law firms.

In her professional practice, lic. iur. Marzia Fabbrini has had experience with several procedures of federal administrative crimes, commercial law, contract law, tax law and employment law.

Her other areas of experience are the adult protection law, the debt enforcement and the bankruptcy law, including procedures related to debt consolidation, areas in which she also holds courses at the Istituto di formazione continua (translation: "Institute for continuing education").

Her training as a mediator gives her an alternative management approach to judicial conflict, through mediation experiments.

The vocation of the law firm in Locarno to deal with matters with extra-cantonal and foreign jurisdictional relations, has led lic. iur. Marzia Fabbrini to work professionally with the team of the law firm, in addition to Italian, also in French, German and English.

The extra-professional and professional experiences of lic. iur. Marzia Fabbrini allow her to maintain contacts, exchanges and collaborations in her areas of competence with highly qualified professionals in Ticino, Switzerland and Europe.
